Dear Walker-Kosh Customer,

We are pleased to announce that The Walker-Kosh Company has merged with Quality Discount Press Parts & Equipment, Inc effective Friday, February 4, 2005 and will be "The Walker-Kosh Division of Quality Discount". Walker-Kosh has moved their entire operation into Quality Discount's 34,000 sq ft facility in Egg Harbor Township, NJ effective February 4, 2005 and will be shipping orders from The Egg Harbor Township location above on February 4, 2005. The location in Pomton Plains, NJ will be closed after the merger. We welcome our newest customers and with this merger you will not see any interruption in service & we will take care of your needs like you have been accustomed to with Lance Walker & Skip Walker of Walker-Kosh. Each of you will be receiving a "Welcome Package from us".

The 43-year-old Walker-Kosh Company was started in 1962 and has been serving the printing industry for many years and has witnessed tremendous growth in printing over that time. According to Bob Fudala, Director of Operations for Quality Discount, "This new combined operation will simplify operations and allow Walker-Kosh customers to save time and costs by combining their purchasing needs to one company, while offering customers a combined 10,000 plus printing related products." The Walker Kosh division of Quality Discount will continue to be a Master Distributor of 3M Products, Tesa Products, and the other printing related product lines previously supplied by Walker-Kosh. Both company's philosophy is geared toward providing unparalleled customer service, quality products at fair and competitive prices. This win-win merger will greatly benefit Quality Discount's customers on these additional product lines. There will be no interruptions in customer service and delivery with the automated systems Quality Discount has in place, the slitting to size in-house, the large inventory levels we maintain, computerized customer ordering / shipping / accounting systems, on-line web site ordering and quoting, and much more.

As a full service solution provider with low prices, Quality Discount will now be able to service customers in many more printing markets with their broader product lines and at discounted prices. In addition, Quality Discount brokers, buys & sells pre-owned / used pieces of printing related equipment / presses and repairs and rebuilds printing presses and related equipment in the field and in their facility in Egg Harbor Township, New Jersey Quality Discount has been supplying parts, accessories to include tapes, new equipment & pre-owned printing equipment for over 12 years.

Also, make sure you go to their expansive interactive web site at www.qualitydiscount.com which contains used / pre-owned printing equipment with pictures, various services for printers, thousands of new pieces of equipment, new accessories, new parts, equipment & parts ordering quoting on line and much more.
